BURSARY FAQs

To help you better understand the application process, we've put together a list of frequently asked questions. Please take the time to read through them carefully.

Q: Will every learner who applies receive a bursary?

A: No. SANRAL receives many bursary applications from students across South Africa and, unfortunately, we have only a limited number of bursaries to give out each year. But don't let that discourage you! If you are motivated to excel in your studies, you should still apply for this opportunity.

Q: How does SANRAL select the bursary recipients?

A: The bursary is awarded based on a combination of academic merit and financial need. SANRAL takes into account its annual and strategic plans, policies and budget when making selections. The background of the learner is also taken into consideration. SANRAL reserves the right to decline applications from a designated group once the equity target for that group has been reached.

Q: How will I know if my bursary application was successful?

A: SANRAL will contact successful candidates only – once the final selection process has been completed. If you have not received any communication within three months from the application closing date, it means that your application was unsuccessful. Unfortunately, we cannot provide individual feedback on unsuccessful applications.

Q: Does receiving a SANRAL bursary guarantee employment with SANRAL?

A: No. While we're happy to support you on your journey to success, receiving a bursary is not a guarantee of future employment opportunities with SANRAL.

Remember!

Even if you don't receive a SANRAL bursary this year, you can always re-apply next year.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SUPPORTING SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS ON THEIR JOURNEY TO SUCCESS

SANRAL

BUILDING SOUTH AFRICA
THROUGH BETTER ROADS

The bursary programme is open to both matriculants looking to pursue tertiary studies and current students already enrolled at a tertiary institution.

The programme supports studies in various fields that are critical to SANRAL's operations, beyond just engineering. Limited awards on postgraduate and undergraduate level are available in the following fields:

HUMAN RESOURCES

CIVIL ENGINEERING

FINANCE

ELECTRONIC ENGINEERING

SUPPLY CHAIN & PROCUREMENT

MINIMUM BURSARY REQUIREMENTS

To qualify for a bursary, you must:

- Be a South African citizen under the age of 35
- Meet the academic requirements for your chosen course
- Achieve a stipulated academic average:
 - For students at tertiary institutions: 60% overall average
 - For matriculants: 70% overall average
- Study at an approved South African tertiary institution (privately owned universities will not be considered)
- Intend to enrol for full-time study (not part-time or distance learning)
- Complete an application form in full and include all necessary supporting documents

Note: The course you indicate on your bursary application form must match the course you are accepted for at your chosen tertiary institution.

ATTENTION APPLICANTS! All applications are carefully reviewed and verified, and any misrepresentation of information could result in your bursary being cancelled, even if this is discovered after the award has been made. For a smooth verification process, please make sure that all application materials are accurate and complete.

WHAT THE BURSARY COVERS

To ensure that SANRAL can support as many students as possible, we apply a 'Means Test' to all applications. The test determines the amount of assistance that SANRAL can offer based on your individual circumstances. While we try our best to cover all your expenses, there may be cases where a family contribution is necessary. Depending on the outcome of the Means Test, the bursary provided by SANRAL may offer either a full or partial sponsorship.
